

General Conditions for IFFAP

- All applications submitted less than 15 days to the festival start date, are considered for reimbursement only.
- Filmmakers availing of the IFFAP will be asked to enter into an Undertaking Agreement with FDCP. Herein, filmmakers will join the FDCP's mentorship program and be required to contribute to planned filmmaking workshops, trainings, lectures, or outreaches to communities for film education purposes.
- After the flight ticket has already been issued by FDCP, rebooking is strictly prohibited.
* If rebooking is completely necessary, the filmmaker must shoulder the rebooking costs.
- Failure to submit required post-travel documents within 10 days from the filmmaker's return to the Philippines will result in the filmmaker being put onto a probationary list for the IFFAP. This may result in a ban of 2 years from availing of the IFFAP.
- One specific film may only avail of the IFFAP for up to two different international film festivals.
- Only filmmakers in good standing with the FDCP may avail of the IFFAP.
