FILM DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL OF THE PHILIPPINES

CreatePHFilms
FUND FOR SMALL BUDGET PRODUCTION

Guidelines

CreatePHFilms is a funding program administered by the Film Development Council of the Philippines (FDCP) to encourage the production of quality films and the artistic creation of Filipino filmmakers through financial support for project development, production, post-production, and distribution.

The CreatePHFilms Fund for Small Budget Production is a selective refundable fund of ONE MILLION PESOS (P 1,000,000.00) for production companies.

I. Disclaimer

1. The FDCP may decline to accept and/or reject an application if it does not follow and/or comply with the guidelines which are designed to be read in conjunction with the relevant application form. As the guidelines and application form are subject to changes and updates, applicants should ensure that they have the most current version of these documents by checking <http://www.fdcphfilms.com> prior to the submission of their applications.
2. All the information provided by the applicants will be held by the FDCP on a strictly commercial-in-confidence basis. Information will only be provided to the CreatePHFilms Committee, the Philippine government, and consultants if necessary.
3. CreatePHFilms is a selective (NOT ASSURED or AUTOMATIC) awarded fund that is subject to strict evaluation and audit of qualified expenses.
4. All applications are made at the applicant's own risk. The FDCP is not liable for any loss, damage, or costs arising directly or indirectly from the application process, the FDCP's decision to refuse the project, or from dealing with the application in any manner.

XI. Project Evaluation

The project will be evaluated on the following:

1. Degree to which the work promotes the Philippine culture and its territory;
2. Degree to which the production contributes to the Philippine film industry economic development;
3. The financial strength and stability of the Project;
4. Degree to which the project encourages diversity and inclusion;
5. The distribution potential through festival, theatrical release, and VOD platform in order to reach domestic audiences; and
6. The quality of the team and talent: script, producer and production company, scriptwriter, and director attached to the project.

In due process and if necessitates, FDCP will seek the advice of one or more independent film production consultants on a strictly commercial-in-confidence basis to provide an independent assessment on the expenditures and budget of the project.

The decision of the Committee is final and irrevocable. The FDCP is not obliged to give any further explanation for the results.

XII. Payment

1. In the event of a legal dispute, arbitration or judicial proceedings, the FDCP reserves the right to withhold the approved fund payment until the matter is settled, or the FDCP is at the impression, after assessment of the dispute, that it is satisfied to release the payment.
2. The fund can be nullified with immediate effect, and the FDCP can ask for the fund reimbursement under any of the following conditions:
 - a. The applicant is unable to produce any documents or details asked for in the final report.
 - b. The applicant submitted false information and/or documents that were obtained by fraud, material inaccuracies or misrepresentation.
 - c. The final report doesn't comply fully with the Call For Application with key details of the project that changed significantly whether creative, financial, or artistic involvement.

3. The payment of the fund shall be made in three (3) installments. The first sixty percent (60%) of the fund shall be paid within sixty (60) days after signing of the Memorandum of Agreement; the following twenty percent (20%) shall be paid within sixty (60) days after the approval of the complete Final Report. The remaining twenty percent (20%) shall be paid once all imperatives have been complied and submitted by the applicant.
4. The applicant must notify the FDCP if the right option is going to lapse, terminate, or be varied. The applicant shall own the rights over the project which shall not be assigned to anyone else. The fund can be nullified, and/or reimbursed in any case.
5. If the applicant did not declare all its proceeds, the FDCP has the right to deny its application in all FDCP-related programs.
6. The applicant shall hold FDCP harmless and indemnify FDCP against any third party claim in connection with infringement of any intellectual property right, or any accident, injury, loss or damage caused by the performance of the agreement.
7. Should the applicant renege from its responsibilities as specified herein and/or FDCP determine the applicant to be in violation of the terms of the memorandum of agreement, the FDCP reserves the right to prohibit the applicant, its principals, and any parent or subsidiary companies from applying or accessing further funding from FDCP for a period of two (2) consecutive years upon written notice.
8. The FDCP may appoint one (1) or more of its officers, as the case may be, to facilitate and assist in the proper utilization and management of the budget in relation to the project

XIII. Refund

1. As per the Memorandum of Agreement, the FDCP shall receive a return of investment up to 100% of the fund awarded to the project. This shall be the last reimbursable amount from the financing plan to be recouped only after the deduction of the following: production costs, distribution, sales fees and expenses, collection account fees (if any), and repayment of debt (if any).
2. Recoupment shall come from all exploitation of revenue streams, including but not limited to theatrical release, Video On-Demand, and ancillary rights exploitation.
3. The FDCP may appoint a professional third-party collection agent to collect its return of investment from the film.
4. For this purpose, the applicant producer must submit to the FDCP a quarterly report of sales and disbursements for two (2) years or until such time that FDCP has received its full return of investment.
5. FDCP's contribution shall be returned by the applicant through a manager's check in the FILM DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL OF THE PHILIPPINES' name, delivered within two (2) weeks from the collection of proceeds from each exploitation.
6. FDCP shall take ownership of a percentage of the Film Rights (pursuant to the fund investment referred to in 3.b) and in accordance with the Financing Plan and Production Budget attached to this Agreement, until such time that the maximum return of investment in the amount of ONE MILLION PESOS (Php 1,000,000.00) is recouped by FDCP.

XIV. Reporting

As a funding partner, the FDCP will be entitled to the following:

1. Approve the terms of all other investment in the production, including independently-sourced private investment.
2. Receive a copy of, or electronic access to, weekly and monthly producer narrative reports, cost reports and balance sheets.
3. Receive a copy of, or electronic access to, daily call sheets, rushes, daily progress reports (DPRs).
4. View and comment on the film at various stages of the edit.

5. Monitor and audit the expenses up to the fund amount.
6. The FDCP must be consulted before any update of the Chain of title (new partner, financiers, sharing the rights, etc.) and also be notified of any artistic, financial change in the project.
7. The applicant warrants ownership of the copyright of the film and that it will not be assigned to anyone else. Otherwise, the applicant must notify the FDCP if the right option is going to lapse, terminate, or will be varied. The fund can be nullified and/or terminated in any case.
8. Submit within two (2) years after the conclusion of the project a full report of domestic and/or international Box Office

XV. Imperatives

NATIONAL REGISTRY AND SAFE FILMING PROGRAMS

Founded in 2017, the National Registry is a program under the Film Development Council of the Philippines (FDCP) that aims to organize a veritable database of all active film and television workers, audio-visual companies, audio-visual organizations, and film festivals all over the country, and open avenues for opportunities and activities that will promote the growth and development of the local audio-visual industry and promote its participation in both domestic and world markets.

NR also seeks to consolidate efforts as an empowered community of stakeholders so that film and audiovisual workers' voices may be heard and real action may be realized through the development of legislation and policy, education, social welfare, training, protection of intellectual property (IP), and freedom of expression, with active participation from all the sectors and stakeholders in the audiovisual industry.

SAFE FILMING

The Safe Filming Program is a program by the Film Development Council of the Philippines in partnership with the Department of Health and the Department of Labor and Employment, which implements the strategies and guidelines of the FDCP-DOLE-DOH JOINT ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 2020-001. It provides a global resource website that outlines the principles of safe production and provides information about systems, resources, forms, and all related documents and issuances to ensure working safely in the Philippines for both local and international film and audiovisual productions.

Safe Filming is also a platform that allows for active collaboration with stakeholders through the project registration process, which FDCP coordinates with government agencies such as DOLE, DOH, DILG, and LGUs for the monitoring of compliance to the guidelines of the FDCP-DOLE-DOH JOINT ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 2020-001. Other OSH-related concerns from the OSH Officers or workers, including work-related injuries, illnesses, and any unsafe working conditions, may also be coursed through the Safe Filming for proper inspection.
